

Introduced by Senator DunnFebruary 16, 2005

An act to amend Section 186.3 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 357, as introduced, Dunn. Criminal profiteering.

Existing law provides for the forfeiture of assets of a person convicted of criminal profiteering, as specified.

This bill would make a technical, nonsubstantive change to this provision.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 186.3 of the Penal Code is amended to
2 read:

3 186.3. (a) In any case in which a person is alleged to have 4 been engaged in a pattern of criminal profiteering activity; and
5 upon a conviction of the underlying offense, the assets listed in
6 subdivisions (b) and (c) shall be subject to forfeiture upon proof
7 of the provisions of subdivision (d) of Section 186.5.

8 (b) Any property interest whether tangible or intangible,
9 acquired through a pattern of criminal profiteering activity.

10 (c) All proceeds of a pattern of criminal profiteering activity,
11 which property shall include all things of value that may have
12 been received in exchange for the proceeds immediately derived
13 from the pattern of criminal profiteering activity.
